

Subject	Description
Reading	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Oral reading in class, sustained silent reading</li> <li>• Comprehension related to the stories in reading book</li> <li>• Vocabulary –context clues, synonyms, antonyms, base words, prefixes and suffixes</li> <li>• Writing definitions</li> <li>• Reference and study strategies</li> <li>• Using the dictionary Alphabetical order, entry words, guide words, pronunciation and the syllabication, using a thesaurus</li> <li>• Using the Library organization card catalog encyclopedia and other reference aids</li> <li>• Organizing information alphabetical order reading maps using diagrams, tables, graphs and charts</li> <li>• Listening and speaking skills dictation listening to poetry, a story and taking notes</li> </ul> -oral reading, drama, giving reasons, class discussion
English Grammar	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The sentence- types complete subject, complete predicate, simple subject, and simple predicate. Combining sentences, compound sentences, compound subject and compound predicate</li> <li>• Nouns- what are nouns, common nouns, proper nouns, singular, plural, singular possessive and plural possessive</li> <li>• Verbs what are verbs-verbs in present, past and future making subjects and verbs agree, the special verb be, irregular verbs and the contractions with not.</li> <li>• Adjectives- what is and adjective, adjective after be, using a, an, and the, making comparisons, comparing with more and most, and comparing with good and bad</li> <li>• Mechanics- capitalization and the punctuation</li> <li>• Adverbs- what is and adverb, comparing with adverbs, using good, well, and negatives</li> <li>• Pronouns- what is a pronoun, subject pronoun, object pronoun, using I and ME, possessive pronouns, contractions with pronouns, pronouns and</li> </ul>
Literature and Writing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Review the writing process- prewriting, drafting, revising, proof reading and publishing</li> <li>• Story writing, forming and indenting paragraph, first hand reports, book reports and research reports, Letter writing</li> </ul>
Social Studies	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Study the history of California from pre Colombian to modern times</li> <li>• Appreciate the roles of different ethnic groups in the formation of modern California</li> <li>• Explain how California became a leader in agricultural and industry</li> <li>• Understand the power and function of local, state and federal government</li> </ul>

Mathematics

- understand the place value of whole numbers up to the millions
- add and subtract numbers with up to four digits
- perform multiplication and division with remainder by 2 through 10
- classify each type of polygons and identify each type of quadrilaterals
- choose an appropriate customary and metric units of capacity, volume, weight, and mass
- multiply 3-digit numbers by 1-digit numbers and 2-digits numbers

Planting the seeds of knowledge.